Week 7, Term 4

20th November, 2012

Year Two students commenced their two week intensive swimming program yesterday afternoon, once again ably run by Marianne Moellers.

Sophie, Stella and Maisyn attended Narrandera Public and St Joseph's for the day yesterday, prior to swimming school as part of their ongoing Transition Program.

Kindergarten visited the Narrandera Pre-School and The Narrandera Park today as part of their H.S.I.E. unit, 'Places and Spaces.' This is the first of several 'trips' we have planned for this term.

The Book Fair held last week sold $1,100.00 worth of books which enabled our school to select over $350.00 of free books for our Library. Thank you all for your support.

I will be attending the last meeting of our ARCONA Small Schools Network group, at Grong Grong on Thursday this week.

This afternoon our staff will be participating in an intensive course on Reading Eggs. There are many other components of this fantastic program that we are not currently accessing so we are all looking forward to finding out more about it.

Our students will be performing Christmas songs at the Monster Street Party on Friday, 29th November. We will be located outside JT AutoPro on the evening. All students are asked to come, there will be more information in next week's newsletter.

Also a reminder to send in those donations for our Presentation Day Raffle Hampers. They are Toy, Pamper and Food.

Have a great week everyone

PAMPER TOYS GROCERIES

THEY WILL BE THE PRIZES FOR THE CHRISTMAS RAFFLE THIS YEAR. THE CHILDREN ALL GET VERY EXCITED EACH DAY TO SEE WHAT ELSE HAS COME IN.

BUT AT THE MOMENT THE TUBS ARE LOOKING QUITE BARE... WE WOULD LOVE TO SEE THEM OVER-FLOWING FOR THE LUCKY WINNERS.

IF EACH FAMILY SENDS IN JUST 1 ITEM FOR A TUB IT WON'T TAKE LONG TO FILL THEM.....

SO PLEASE ... LETS KEEP THINGS COMING IN. AND REMEMBER.....

IT COULD BE YOUR FAMILY THAT HAS THE WINNING TICKET.

NEIS P&C COMMITTEE.

We worry about what a child will become tomorrow, yet we forget that he is someone today.
