Week 7, Term 4

17th November, 2014

Kinder Orientation:

Last Thursday our new Kindergarten students and their parents visited us for their full Orientation Day. They were very excited to be at school for the whole day and were especially appreciative of receiving their new hats.

New Enrolment in Year One:

Yesterday Mrs Beaumont and Year One were very happy to be joined by Sarah Parry. Sarah enjoyed her first day at Narrandera East renewing old acquaintances from Pre-school days.

Year Two Swimming School:

Year Two students couldn't wait to hit the pool yesterday for the first day of their two week intensive swimming program. Coaches Lauren and Grace were impressed with the enthusiasm of the group and look forward to improving their skills over the next two weeks.

Advent Pageant:

Our students will be joining the other primary schools in Narrandera at the Advent Pageant on Friday this week, from 9.30-12.00. Students are asked to wear biblical type clothing over their sports uniform for the visit to the shops in East Street before assembling in the Narrandera Park for a mini concert. As the students will not be at school at lunchtime there will be No Canteen this Friday.

Life Education Van:

Today all three classes enjoyed their session in the Life Education Van with Paula and Harold. The Life Ed program is a very worthwhile addition to the PD/Health/PE curriculum and we look forward to our visit from the van every year. The Life Education visit was included in your child's Book Pack but for those parents that have not paid their Book Pack the cost is $8.00.

Zoomobile Visit:

The Taronga Zoomobile will be visiting our school next Tuesday. There is no cost for this visit.

Regards,
 Karen Babbs - Principal
