Week 9, Term 1

24th March, 2014

We are now on the countdown for our Twilight Fete planned for Friday, 4th April. With only ten days to go we encourage our families to sort through their unwanted toys, games, books, household items, etc, for our trash and treasure stall. We also need more filled Pesca jars and unwanted jewellery. It's not too early to send in jams, relish and chutneys for the produce stall and please continue to invite your friends along to enjoy the day. We have some fantastic chocolate wheel and raffle prizes, kindly donated by local business houses and lots of attractions for both parents and children. It's all gearing up to be a great day.

A reminder to all students that tomorrow is Epilepsy Awareness Day and we encourage you to wear your uniform and accessorise with something purple for the day. Miley Lilford in Kindergarten is going to talk to us about living with epilepsy.

This afternoon Mrs Davis and I will be going shopping to purchase games and toys for the Narrandera Hospital with the money raised at our recent Water Play Charity Fundraiser.

We hope families from Narrandera East support the Charity Fundraiser for Jamie Osmond at the Bowling Club on Saturday, 29th March. Jamie, who is currently fighting Leukaemia, was a past student of Narrandera East School.

I will be attending the Wagga Primary Principal's Conference on Thursday and Friday this week. Items on the agenda include, Local Schools Local Decisions, the new school planning format and the new school administration and finance system, LMBR.

We are having our annual Easter raffle again this year and each family is asked to donate an Easter Egg. Tickets will be sent home next week with the raffle being drawn at our Easter Celebrations. We will also be having an Easter Bag Parade. Students are to make their bag at home and bring it with them on the day. Parents and Grandparents are invited to attend.

Have a great week everyone.

Regards
Mrs Karen Babbs
Principal

Purple Day March 26 A World Day for Epilepsy Awareness

On Wed, March 26 students are invited to show their support of World Day for Epilepsy Awareness by wearing a purple accessory to school. Students still wear their uniform but may choose to accessorize with a purple hat, cap, socks, headband, ribbon, coloured hair, sweat band or any other purple item. For those who do not have anything purple in their wardrobe small ribbons will be pinned to their shirt or dress. Miley Lilford in Kindergarten will talk to the students at our school assembly about her epilepsy, the signs we need to look for and what to do if she or someone else has a seizure. This is not a fundraising event so no money is needed.

to Madisyn Bengtson who turns 5 on the 25th
Renae Croft who turns 5 on the 31st.

Congratulations

Last week's Assembly was certainly a busy one with Zoe Hutchison receiving a Principal's Award and Adam McGilvray, Sebastien Warren, Ava Baumgartner, Jasmine Choy and Thomas Wickes all receiving Go for Gold Awards. Well done everyone!

You can learn many things from children. How much patience you have, for instance!
