Principal's News

Kindergarten Orientation Day

Our Kindergarten students for 2018 attended a full Orientation day with us last Wednesday. All children thoroughly enjoyed the day and the opportunity to mix with the students from Narrandera East. They will be more than ready to commence their first year of formal schooling in the new year.

Remembrance Day

Many thanks to Mrs Steward who organised our school Remembrance Day Service last Friday and to the Year 2 students for their role in the ceremony.

Book Fair

Thank you to all those parents, grandparents and students who purchased books from our Book Fair over the past two weeks. Your generosity has enabled us to purchase around $500.00 for our library. All students who purchased books went into a draw and the winners were; Alexandra Haines, Duane Dames, Georgie Hall, Izayah Lyons, Chelsea Lawrence and Luke Perram-Bevan (absent).

Year 2 Transition & Swimming School

Yesterday our Year 2 students attended their second Transition Day at their respective schools. Thank you to Mrs Beer for organising these days for us. Over the next two weeks our Year 2 students will be completing their intensive swimming program every afternoon from 2.00 - 3.00pm at Lake Talbot. Instructors this year will be Mrs Beaumont, Mr Lawrence and Emily Roffe.

Finance Training

Tomorrow Mrs Amery and myself will be attending Finance Training at Hanwood Public School in Griffith.

Have a great week

Regards

Karen Babbs - Principal

Wanted Old Thongs

Braxton Ivanoff one of our Kindergarten students for 2018 has asked if anyone has an old pair of thongs or even an old thong to donate to the Grong Grong Earth Park.

The Grong Grong Earth Park is recycling/upcycling and are going to construct a very Aussie Christmas Tree at the Earth Park made from thongs.

All donations of thongs or a thong can be dropped off at the office.

Bouquet from the parents to all the teachers for all the hard work and care they provide to our children.

Thank you
